

wafels

brussels wafel $5

Light'n crispy. This is the "Mother of all wafels" and first came to New York for the 1964 World Fair. Now it's back, better than ever.

liège wafel $5

Soft'n chewy! This is the "other" Belgian wafel, the one the Belgians kept secret from the world. Sneaky little Belgians!

mini-wafelini $3

For beaucoup cravings, petit hunger.

brussels wafel

liège wafel

dinges

[a.k.a. Belgian for toppings or "whatchamacallits"]

- strawberries
- bananas
- belgian chocolate fudge
- whipped cream
- nutella
- dulce de leche
- spekuloos spread our favorite
- walnuts
- real maple syrup [grade A]
- butter
- ice cream - large scoop [+ $2]

- first dingies free
- second dingies $1
- unlimited dingies makes a WMD $2

*WMD [Wafel of Massive Deliciousness]

WMDs do exist! They were in Belgium all along. To make your own: Pimp your wafel by piling on any dingies you like.

WMD

mini-wafelini

de bom

ice crème dingies

large scoop on your wafel $2

So good, it's almost illegal. Except in Belgium of course.

coupe dame blanche $5

3 scoops of vanilla ice cream, topped with belgian chocolate fudge and whipped cream.

mini-dame blanche $3

a.k.a. the favorite indulgence of belgian prince Alexandre Frédéric Jean Philémon Étienne Philippe Hippolyte the XIV.

coupe dame blanche

mini-dame blanche

wet dingies

cold drinks $1.50 / $2

You'll need something to wash down those wafels & dingies

coffee/ ice coffee/ tea $1.50/$2

Shot of vanilla, hazelnut or chocolate - add 25c

hot Belgian cocoa $2 / $3

Creamy, rich and très décadent

ice coffee

hot belgian cocoa

one last dingies

wafel bib ask nicely

Eat your wafel, don't wear it.

wafel bag ask very nicely

Have wafel, will travel!

wafel box with built-in GPS

After travel, arrive in style

coffee